Vernissage of Game Of Thrones was held on September 7, 2015 at The Carrousel du louvre in Paris with a great surpise at the After with the presence of two actors of the series, Liam Cunningham (alias Ser Davos) and Ian Beattie (alias Meryn Trant).

LIAM CUNNINGHAM is an Irish actor with a long career on TV, stage and film. He has appeared in films such as Clash of the Titans, Hunger, First Knight and Jude, and TV series including Outcasts, Camelot and Northanger Abbey.

In Game of Thrones Cunningham is playing the role of Davos Seaworth. He was announced in the role on 19 July 2011. He is a starring cast member for the second, third and fourth season.

IAN BEATTIE is a Northern Irish actor. He attended Methodist College Belfast. He is best known for playing the role of Antigonus in Oliver Stone's movie Alexander, and has also appeared in The Tudors, Mo and Space Truckers.

In Game of Thrones he played Ser Meryn Trant, a knight of the Kingsguard. He was announced in the role on 14 October 2010. He initially appeared as a guest star in the first season and returned in this role for the second, third, fourth and fifth season.
